About "Churingas Bed & Breakfast"

Nestled on five acres along Traveston Road in the Sunshine Coast Hinterland at the headwaters of Traveston Creek, only 1.5 hours drive north of Brisbane, "Churingas Bed & Breakfast" is a quiet retreat and a Birdwatchers paradise.

Stroll at your leisure through the well tended grounds and native forest. Sit in the early morning or late afternoon by the quiet waterway flowing through the property to observe the great variety of Birdlife coming to drink and bathe.

"Step out" for an early morning or late afternoon walk birding along a roadside verge.

Or just sit back and relax on the homesteads' wide verandah overlooking the headwaters of Traveston Creek, and "Bird" the canopy whilst enjoying the country hospitality of your hosts, Joan & Roy. You may even see a Platypus!
