About "Tin Can Bay Foreshore Bird Walk"

Tin Can Bay is known throughout Australia as one of the most charming villages on the SE Queensland coast; our Foreshore continuing to gather praise for it's wealth of natural beauty.

Located within Queensland's Great Sandy Straits, it is also part of a Ramsar Wetland of international importance.

Whether bicycle riding, jogging, or just casually strolling, follow the signage along the 4 km stretch of the easily accessible "Tin Can Bay Foreshore Bird Walk", you will soon discover that Tin Can Bay is home to a truly wonderful variety of birds.

With a list 143 species already sighted, our Foreshore is gaining a "reputation" as a great place to bird watch, providing a range of habitats for an excellent birding experience.

Acknowledgement to Qld Department of Natural Resources

Species listed compiled from records of COOLOOLA NATURE, Tin Can Bay residents, & valued visitors to our Foreshore!
